

FAQ: SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship Management

Q. When are scholarships for each semester available?

A. The fall scholarship cycle begins February 15th and closes June 30th. The spring scholarship cycle begins August 15th and ends September 30th. Make sure to update and submit your application during the scholarship application cycle! Check this site often for new opportunities that may be available outside of the general application cycle.

Q. Where do I find scholarships?

A. You may access scholarship information at <http://sjcd.academicworks.com/>. Program criteria for all available Foundation, departmental, and third party scholarships available at San Jacinto College are contained at this one-stop web site. Application, review, selection, acceptance, and maintenance are all completed online.

Q. How will San Jacinto College communicate scholarship awards and other scholarship information once I have applied?

A. All scholarship communications are through the San Jacinto College email system including award notifications. Check your College email regularly for scholarship information! Scholarship communication may direct you to access Academic Works to perform actions, like scholarship acceptance, so be sure to read the communication thoroughly.

Q. I've been selected to receive a scholarship. How and when will I have access to the scholarship?

A. If selected to receive a scholarship you will be notified by e-mail. Each scholarship program's criteria will be outlined in the e-mail, as well as the deadline to accept your scholarship. Complete information pertaining to your scholarship should be contained in the email; however, if you have other questions, please contact scholarship.info@sjcd.edu or call 281.991.2632 or 281.991.2650.

Q. What department is responsible for the maintenance of scholarships?

A. The Office of Grants Management processes all scholarships awarded through the SJC Foundation, grants, athletics and all other college departments. Please email scholarship.info@sjcd.edu.

Q. What are the minimum qualifications to apply for a scholarship?

A. Eligibility Requirements are as follows: minimum GPA of 2.0*, minimum enrollment of 6 credit hours*
*Criteria may include other factors that vary by scholarship program.

For Scholarship Applicants

Go to: <http://sjcd.academicworks.com/> and select a scholarship program. Scroll to the bottom of the page and select the sign in link.

Click the blue "sign in" link to begin your General Application. You must have a San Jacinto College username and password to be able to sign in and begin the application process. Once you complete your General Application, the system will auto match it with all scholarships in which you meet the criteria. Meeting the qualification criteria means you will be entered into the pool of applicants for a particular scholarship. It does not guarantee you will receive a scholarship.

Auto match scholarships will appear with "None" listed under the Action column— this means no additional action is required for consideration. If the scholarship appears with "Apply" under the Action column, – this means additional
